Film Club

Friday, October 10th, 2025 @ 7:30 pm – The Cowboy and the Queen: This uplifting documentary is about the life of Monty Roberts, a remarkable horse whisperer whose non-violent method of training horses led to an enduring friendship with Queen Elizabeth II. His gentle approach provides inspiring lessons to show how trust can build a better world for both horses and people.

Book Club

Tuesday, October 28th @ 7:30 pm – The Personal Librarian

By Marie Benedict. This novel covers the remarkable life of Belle da Costa Greene, who worked for the wealthy New York banker JP Morgan and helped amass the amazing collection of rare manuscripts and artwork now housed in the Morgan Library and Museum – all the while disguising her identity as a person of colour in the early 20th century.
